The Sibyls is a United Kingdom based confidential Christian spirituality group for transgender people, their partners and supporters. It offers companionship along the journey, and information/advocacy to churches.

The Sibyls seeks to:

- Provide safe and private spaces where we can be who we are, explore our concerns, and be true to our own identities.
- Create confidential networks of members encompassing gender variant people, families, friends and supporters
- Give spiritual support including times of worship, teaching, prayer and learning
- Develop long-term caring relationships among Sibyls and to provide an informed and concerned source of help and support in times of crisis
- Enable fellowship, friendship and fun for gender variant people, families, friends and supporters in the context of an inclusive Christian faith
- Advance self-knowledge and self-acceptance and to promote the wider acceptance for gender variant people in churches and wider society
- Supply resources for churches and church leaders who need assistance and information to respond pastorally to gender variance issues among members of Christian communities
- Further the exploration and the expression of gender variance through research, theological writing, drama, art, music and performance

We welcome new members, young and old. There is no membership fee or annual subscription, and no commitment, except confidentiality. Your details are held in total confidence and will not be given to any other members without your permission.
